REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE OSCAR FOSS MEMORIAL LIBRARY

This has been an important year in the growth of the Oscar Foss Memorial Library. During this year the New Hampshire State Library, recognizing the forward strides made by the library, has presented a gift of over 250 books in the non-fiction category. This gift was augmented by the loan of books from the same source.

The trustees and librarian meet each month to plan the program now in progress and to discuss ways in which the library can be of greater use to the community, especially the students of the elementary and secondary schools.

The reference library has been enlarged to a great extent, and the librarian, Mrs. Henry Grau, working with the teachers and principals of the local schools, has purchased books needed by the students for their school work.

Library cards have been issued to over 180 members of the community. It has been gratifying to see the children and young people come to the library in great numbers to borrow books, use the reference materials and facilities, and ask for information to help in their school work.

We have been fortunate in having fine books presented to us by local and summer residents of the community. The Friends of the Library are volunteer librarians during week night hours and they aid with housekeeping and purchase of books. This past year they have contributed sums of money to purchase children's books and a children's fiction catalogue.

In the near future we plan to purchase more reference material, build new shelves, and keep the library open more hours during the week to benefit the students.

Mrs. Grau has attended more sessions at U.N.H. and will soon receive her certification. The information that she has acquired during these sessions has been put to use to benefit our library. The arduous task of cataloging has begun and will take several years to complete.

There is still much to be done to make this library a better one. It is well on its way. The trustees wish to thank everyone who has helped in any way during the past year. Without the aid and good will of the community we could not have progressed to our present status.

Respectfully submitted,

HAZEL CLARK,
EDA ST. JOHN,
EMMA PARENT,

Trustees of the Oscar Foss Memorial Library.

REPORT OF THE FOREST FIRE WARDEN AND YOUR DISTRICT CHIEF

During the past year New Hampshire faced the greatest forest fire threat to its woodlands in more than sixty years. The continued drought brought home to our citizens, as never before, the potential threat of destructive fires to their beautiful and valuable forests, homes and livelihood. In true American tradition of meeting a common threat by volunteer effort, this fire danger was minimized by active prevention, patrol and a relinquishing of personal rights for the common good. It was the greatest demonstration of public cooperation ever experienced by those responsible for local and state fire control. The ready forces of volunteer fire services kept the losses low. For their effort and public response the general fire service expresses its heartfelt thanks for a job well done.

Prevention, however, is not just an activity for the bad fire years. It must be practiced until it becomes a part of our public conscience — a habit. Just plain carelessness with fire causes too many of our fires.

The following practices and suggestions will help:

1. Always have a permit for outdoor burning and burn within the terms of the permit and in a safe place. Burn late in the afternoon when the wind is down or on rainy or damp days. Check your fire and if winds develop extinguish it promptly.
2. Carry your rubbish to the public dump — it's safer. A neglected backyard incinerator causes many fires.
3. Never discard lighted cigarette or match. Make this a year round habit regardless of the safety of your surroundings.
4. Children caused fires are now a major concern. Keep matches away from them and teach them to respect fire and not make it a subject of play.

Let's all join with "Smokey the Bear" and "Keep New Hampshire Green" and growing in 1964.

VETERANS' TAX INFORMATION

Passed 1963 — Legislature

Several changes which become effective April 1, 1964 were made by the 1963 session of the legislature in the Veterans Service Exemption laws. Under the service exemption law in prior years the equity limit that an otherwise entitled person might have and still obtain the $1000 valuation exemption on his or her residential real estate was $5000 in all communities throughout the state. This has now been changed and is graduated downward from $10,000 in towns that assess property at 100% of value in accordance with the level of assessments that exists in each town as determined by the State Tax Commission. The latest survey shows the level of assessment in Barnstead is 42% (?), therefore, the maximum equity which a veteran may have in Barnstead and still receive a $1000 valuation exemption is $4,200 ($$10,000 \times 42\% = $4,200$). Equity is defined as the assessed valuation less bona fide encumbrances of record as of April 1, the tax assessment date. If the selectmen should increase the level of assessments on April 1, 1964 to a higher percentage, the equity allowance will increase accordingly. Other major changes in the veterans service exemption were made and are briefly described as follows:

Residence:

1963 amendment raises the residence requirement from six months preceding April 1 to one year preceding April 1.

Total Disability:

The valuation exemption on service connected total and permanent disability has been increased from $5,000 to $8,000. The limitation of ownership of taxable property (equity provision) does not apply to this class of eligible persons.

Widows:

The widow of any veteran who was killed or died while on active duty, so long as she remains a widow, is now entitled to a valuation exemption of $8,000. The limitation of ownership of taxable property (equity) does not apply to this class.

Eligible persons 65 years or older:

The limitation of ownership of taxable property (equity provision) no longer applies to this age group.

B. REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and the Citizens of Barnstead:

I respectfully submit my third annual report as your Superintendent of Schools.

Staff

School opened in September 1963 with one new teacher, Miss Sandra Black of Alton, a graduate of Plymouth State College, replacing Mrs. Kingsley who resigned to take a position in Vermont.

I would like to pay tribute here to all of our teachers. We have a good building and facilities, but the personality and quality of a school are built on the efforts of people. The Barnstead staff has demonstrated desire for professional improvement through their cooperation in workshops, curriculum meetings, and extension courses.

Parents, I must say in conclusion, that our teachers are facing school problems realistically. They deserve your continued encouragement and, in most cases, your praise.

Curriculum

Every school system must be always alert to changing times and changing conditions in education. Curriculum study and improvements are a constant responsibility if we are to provide quality instruction to all our pupils.

Our efforts in this area have included the development of a written philosophy which teachers can use as a guide in determining their goals and purposes. We have also developed course outlines for each grade and subject area. These have permitted teachers to recognize how well the present program is meeting the established goals or objectives and what weaknesses the program may contain.

An area receiving a great deal of attention this year has been mathematics. The emphasis on the "new" or "modern" mathematics does not mean that all "old" mathematics is out of date. But mathematics today is no longer just a study of numbers and form. It is the study of logical systems. Old mathematical verities are still true, but instead of being the whole of mathematics, they are now but a part. The relationship between modern math and classical math might be compared to that between arithmetic and algebra. All that is valid in arithmetic is still true in the superior context of algebra, but the generalizations of algebra sweep well beyond the capabilities of arithmetic.

The main difference in teaching new mathematics compared to teaching the old is simply this: the old emphasized how. The new emphasises why. In light of the changes around us, a knowledge of the whys of a subject has more potential for handling tomorrow's unknowns.

It is our intention to continue planning workshops and similar programs so that your children may benefit as our teachers grow toward personifying the ideal: That a true education is a lifelong process; that no one ever "gets" an education once and for all. "Properly understood, education is a "getting" process — a continuing development of one's capacity for wisdom, understanding and knowledge. It would be especially tragic to see teachers stop learning. When they do, they lose their best method: The example of their own life."

Improving Our Program

Last March at the regular district meeting the School Board reported their concern over the organization and class load at the elementary school. Although the enrollment estimates of last year did not hold up to the anticipated numbers there is still concern over the class arrangement at the school. The Board in studying various class arrangements soon realized that practically any reorganization will necessarily create a larger budget expenditure. It is for this reason that the Board held a meeting on October 29, 1963 to solicit the desires of the parents and citizens of Barnstead.

Several plans were presented, one being to send grade 7 and 8 to Pittsfield, which was most expensive but which would have provided the children with the best educational program for junior high and in turn would provide a better class arrangement for the first six grades. This proposal was least popular with the citizens attending the October meeting.

The plan receiving most support seemed to be that of adding one teacher to the staff and utilizing the activity room as a classroom. Although this will relieve class size in grades 1-8 it will present some problems in restricting the use of the activity room by the public to a certain extent.

I do hope, however, that the special article requesting a sixth teacher will be approved so that further improvements can be realized in the curriculum.

I wish to again thank the Barnstead School Board, all school personnel and the citizens of Barnstead for their cooperation and support of the schools.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD F. KELLEY,
Superintendent of Schools.

V. AUXILIARY REPORTS

A. REPORT OF PRINCIPAL

BARNSTEAD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

When school opened in September we all knew that we had quite a year ahead of us. We had made revisions in our curriculum. Many of us were working with new texts that we needed to know thoroughly. We were all faced with new challenges.

After using Phonetic Keys to Reading for a year, the teachers felt that the reading series in use was not adequate. We needed a book that would meet the interest of the student and work favorably with the phonetic program. During the summer the staff reviewed several series and chose the set published by the American Book Company. We have found this series to work along very well with our phonetic program.

We also felt it necessary to strengthen the skills of spelling. Just memorizing many words does not mean we have good spellers. A student needs to be able to analyze his spelling words. We chose Spelling Growth published by the Economy Company as our spelling set. As of this date everyone is satisfied with the results. Our school is again participating in the National Spelling Bee. We were very fortunate to have Dale Jones represent Barnstead last spring. He brought home the third place trophy for Belknap County. At present, we are preparing for the school contest. Our winner will represent Barnstead at the county contest in April.

All grades are now working with the modern mathematics program. The students are thoroughly enjoying this study. Fifth graders are at home with ratios just as they were with addition problems. Eighth graders handle the ordering of pairs like veterans.

Grades 1, 2, and 3 have been using modern arithmetic. For another year, the teachers have chosen the Greater Cleveland Plan. This will give the primary grades a stronger background. Of all the series reviewed, this seemed to meet our needs best.

This year, the Phonetic Keys to Reading was advanced to the fourth grade. There is still enthusiasm expressed by the teachers for this phonetic program.

The true test of our present program will come when, on their own, our students put into practice these skills they are learning. We carefully evaluate this progress by the use of standardized tests, diagnostic tests, and observations. Each teacher is constantly watching for signs of the desirable and undesirable in our program.

Throughout the year our staff strives to improve their methods and procedures. During the summer I attended Plymouth State College taking two courses, Public School Administration and Curriculum Development. In September Mrs. Kidder and Miss Black began extension courses. Mrs. Kidder enrolled in Remedial Reading and Diagnostic Testing, Miss Black in Principles and Practices of Guidance both sponsored by Plymouth State College. Both teachers are planning on another course this next semester.

September 29, 30, and October 1, Mrs. Pitman attended the New England Reading Association's Fifteenth Annual Conference at Mount Washington Hotel in Bretton Woods. The theme for this year was "Beyond the Skills". Mrs. Pitman brought back many new ideas that helped put us in the mood for the workshop in reading held November 11 at Barnstead.

Miss Butler and Mrs. Rice of the Portsmouth school system conducted this workshop. Elementary teachers from Pittsfield, Wolfeboro, and Barnstead were in attendance. Everyone was in agreement that this was one of the most profitable meetings that they had ever attended.

During American Education Week, an evening program was presented by the teachers. Our purpose was to acquaint parents with the curriculum, teaching methods, and materials used in our school. Throughout the week, we were pleased to see many parents visiting school.

This year, to keep parents better informed, we are sending home a monthly calendar. On it is listed the coming events and a short summary of special activities. We hope that this calendar has helped keep our community in closer contact with their school.

Since Christmas vacation our winter activities have begun. Skiing and sliding on the hill behind the school are being enjoyed by grades four through eight. Skating is available for all students.

Grades four through eight have been participating in square dancing. A group of the students are preparing to represent our school at the Folk Dance Festival later in the year.

Our school library has grown and become an important place in our school program. The librarians are students from grades seven and eight. They have set up a card catalog that so far has title cards and author cards. Our encyclopedia set is a vital addition to the library.

Education is our business. We feel that the best way to provide a good education for our students is to evaluate and reevaluate our curriculum so that not only the group will profit, but so will the individual. Each child has his strengths and weaknesses. We are striving to meet his needs and interests.

We feel we have a strong program. Our faculty is one of the best. They take their work seriously and give their best to their students.

We do feel that there is a need to strengthen our health program. We also feel that it is important that the more mature a child is when he enters school, the better he can adjust and progress. We expect to do more in these areas in the months to come.

Respectfully submitted,

MARYELIZABETH CAYES,

Principal.
